

Graduate Writing Workshop Summer 2009

A special 8-week course has been designed specifically for graduate and post-doctoral students at TcSUH, particularly for whom English is not the first language.

Topics will include:

- Writing for an American academic/research audience
- Organizing and developing ideas
- Writing effectively in forms common to the scientific field
- Revising and editing
- Delivering an oral presentation

Students will study with instructors and work with consultants from the UH Writing Center in lecture, individual, and small-group settings. (This is not a credit-bearing course, but participants will receive a certificate of completion at the end of the workshop.)

Class size is limited to 15 participants in order to allow for one-on-one interaction and in-depth discussion.

Course schedule:

June 1 - July 23

Mondays
& Thursdays:
3:00 – 4:30 p.m.

The TcSUH PIs will submit nominations to Jacqui Boulavsky by May 8. Once each participant has received notification of his/her acceptance by Mrs. Boulavsky, registration should be completed at the following website:

www.class.uh.edu/wconline/workshops/Workshop_Registration.asp

There is no charge for the course.

A partnership between

TcSUH

&

UNIVERSITY OF HOUSTON

Writing Center